

To Whom it may concern,

I am writing in regards to The Consumer Bankers Association's challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. By weaking the current law you take away the peace one expects in one's own home. If I wan't the services of a company, I'll contact them. Prior to this law the constant barrage of calls was frustrating at best--and infuriating at worst. Just look at spam on the internet for the perfect example of the discretion they'll use to get our business.

Please DO NOT consider weaking the laws currently in force.

Sincerely,
